POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- Class Times: Classes are scheduled conveniently between the 8 am and 10:15 am Mass. Remember to bring your children to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days.

Sunday, Grades K – 6, 9:00 am – 10:00 am

Sunday, Grades 7 – 11, 11:15 am – 12:30 pm

- Attendance: Students are expected to attend classes each week except on holidays as listed on the calendar. Please be punctual. Please call (542-9103, ext. 2) if your child will be absent.
- For the safety of the children, the doors of the school building will be locked at 9:00 am, that is, at the start of class in the first period and at 11:15 am, the start of the second period. The attendance monitor will watch for latecomers. Call 542-9103, ext. 2 (Religion Office) if the attendance monitor is not visible to unlock the door. This # will be posted on the glass door entrance. The side door leading to the Church will also be locked at 9:00 am and 11:15 am.
- For an early dismissal from class, please write a note with the name, date, grade of the child and time for leaving. The note will remain at the attendance monitor's table at the entrance, at which time the parent/guardian will sign the dismissal tablet and wait for the monitor to get your child. Parents should not disturb the class for an early dismissal.
- During class time children use the restroom one at a time.
- In case of sickness, the parent will be contacted.
- In case of a cancellation of classes, due to weather conditions, tune in to local TV stations (2,4,7) or call the Religion Office at 542-9103, ext. 2.
- An incident report will be written by the catechist or D.R.E. if a child is excessively disruptive or harmful to anyone else in the class.

We pray that the children are safe and joyful in God's presence at all times.

Sister M. Ruth Warejko, C.S.S.F.
Director of Religious Education
